bereavement funeral management

abm's purpose is to serve as the family advocate and liaison between churches and funeral homes.

Certified: Elder/Adult Family Mediator

our process

ABM will aid churches in being the facilitator to conduct funerals in a timely fashion and provide the family with the special care needed to guide, answer questions and accommodate them with ease and respect during the grieving process.

ABM will also work with funeral homes and churches by providing them one point of contact that they can work and speak to on behalf of the family. In addition, ABM will manage all of the families needs and assuring that every detail surrounding the internment is satisfied; such as clothing, personal information, paperwork and all needed documentation is provided to necessary parties in a timely fashion.

ABM is not meant to replace churches or funeral home staff but to act as a knowledgeable liaison between all parties.

ABM Mediators also acts a neutral parties to aid in the resolution of a dispute.
